

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

mine; his; hers; its;
yours; ours; theirs

Are those gloves Jenny's?

Yes, they're hers

Do those bikes belong to the twins?

Yes, they're theirs

Are those books the children's?

No, they're not theirs

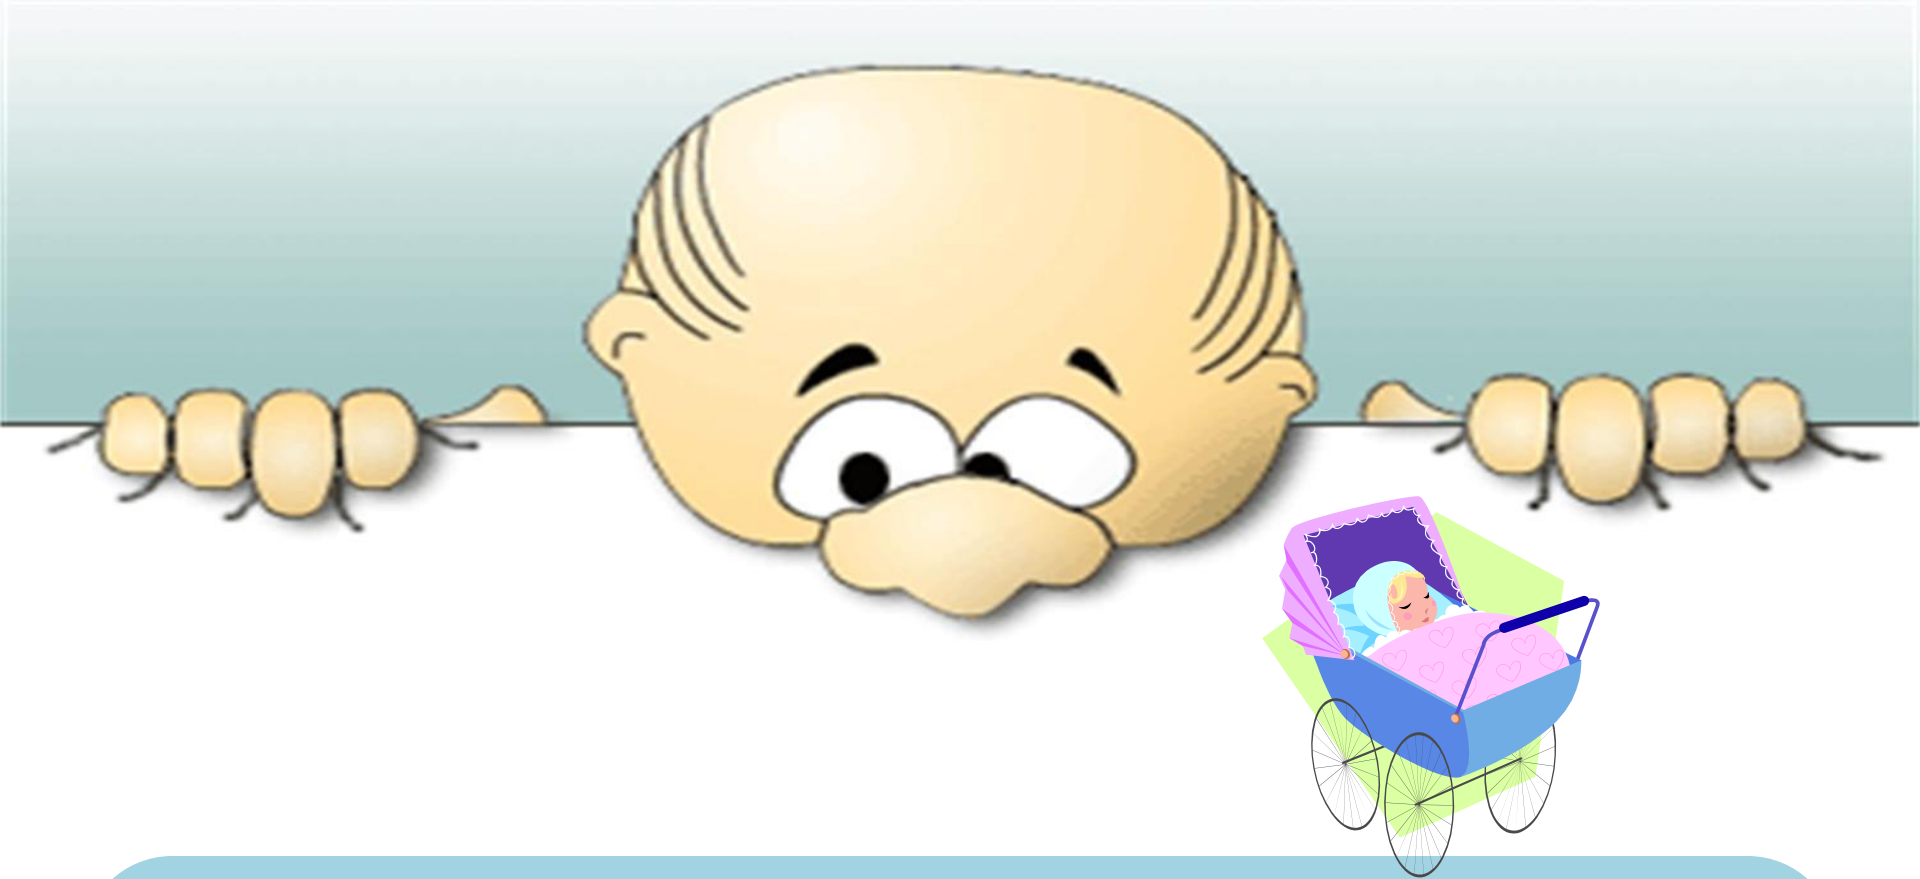

Is that car the policeman's?

Yes, it's his

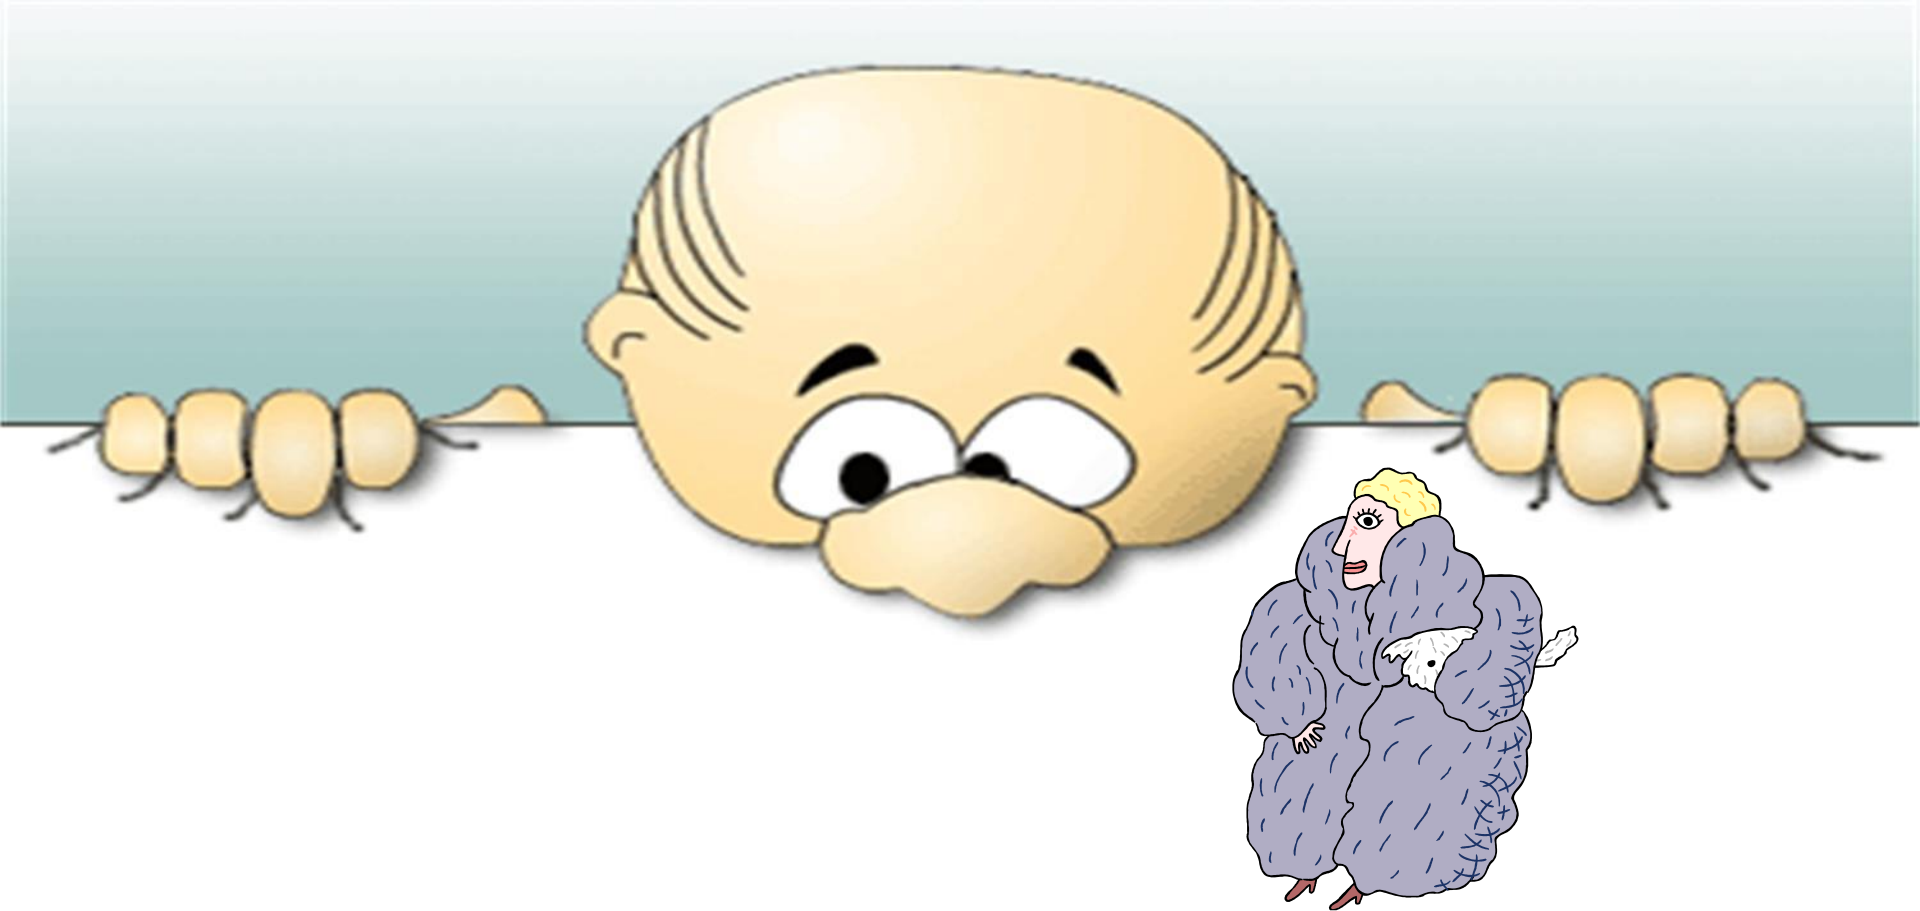

Is that Kate's racket?

Yes, it's hers

Is that David and Linda's baby?

No, it isn't theirs

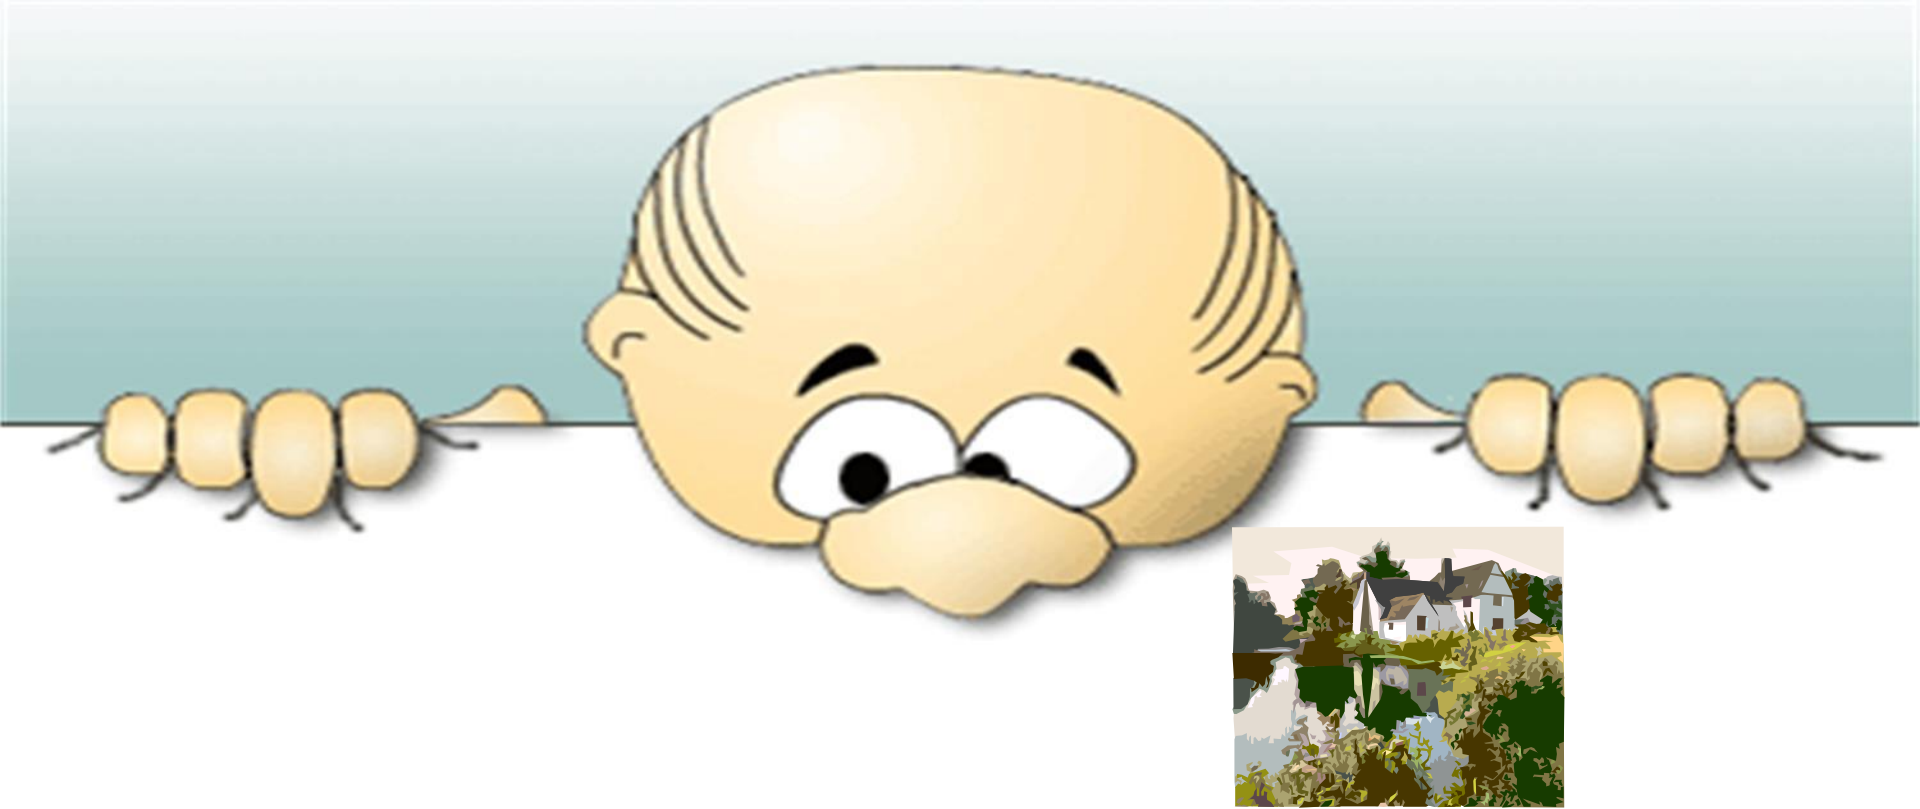

Is that coat Sophie's?

No, it's not hers

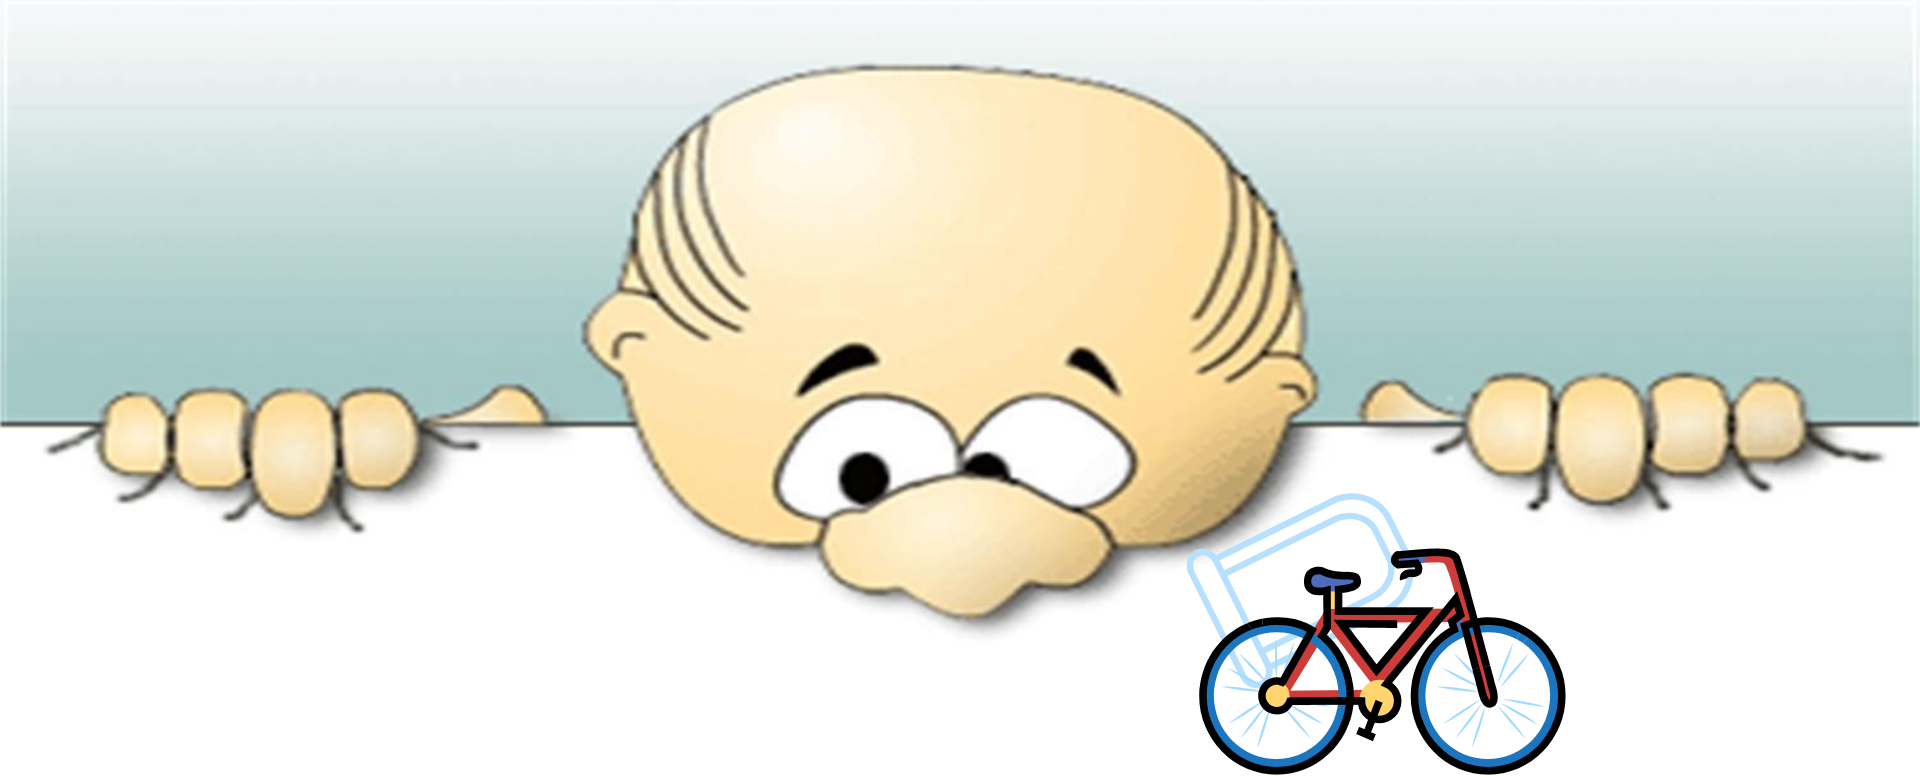

Is that granny's teapot?

Yes, it's hers

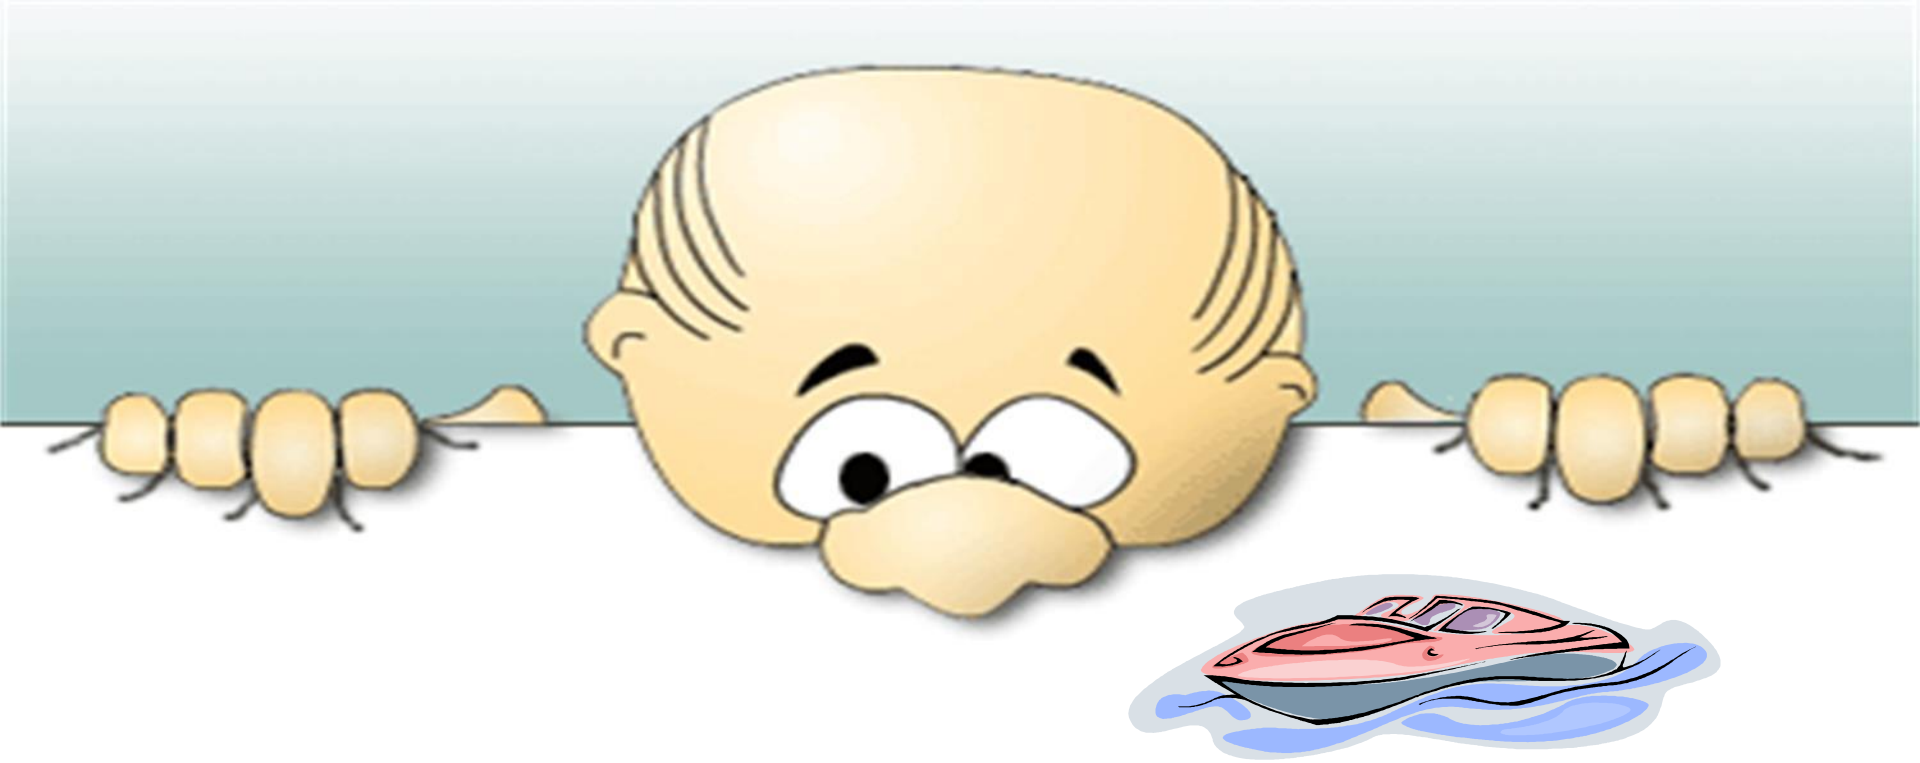

That's our new house.

It's ours

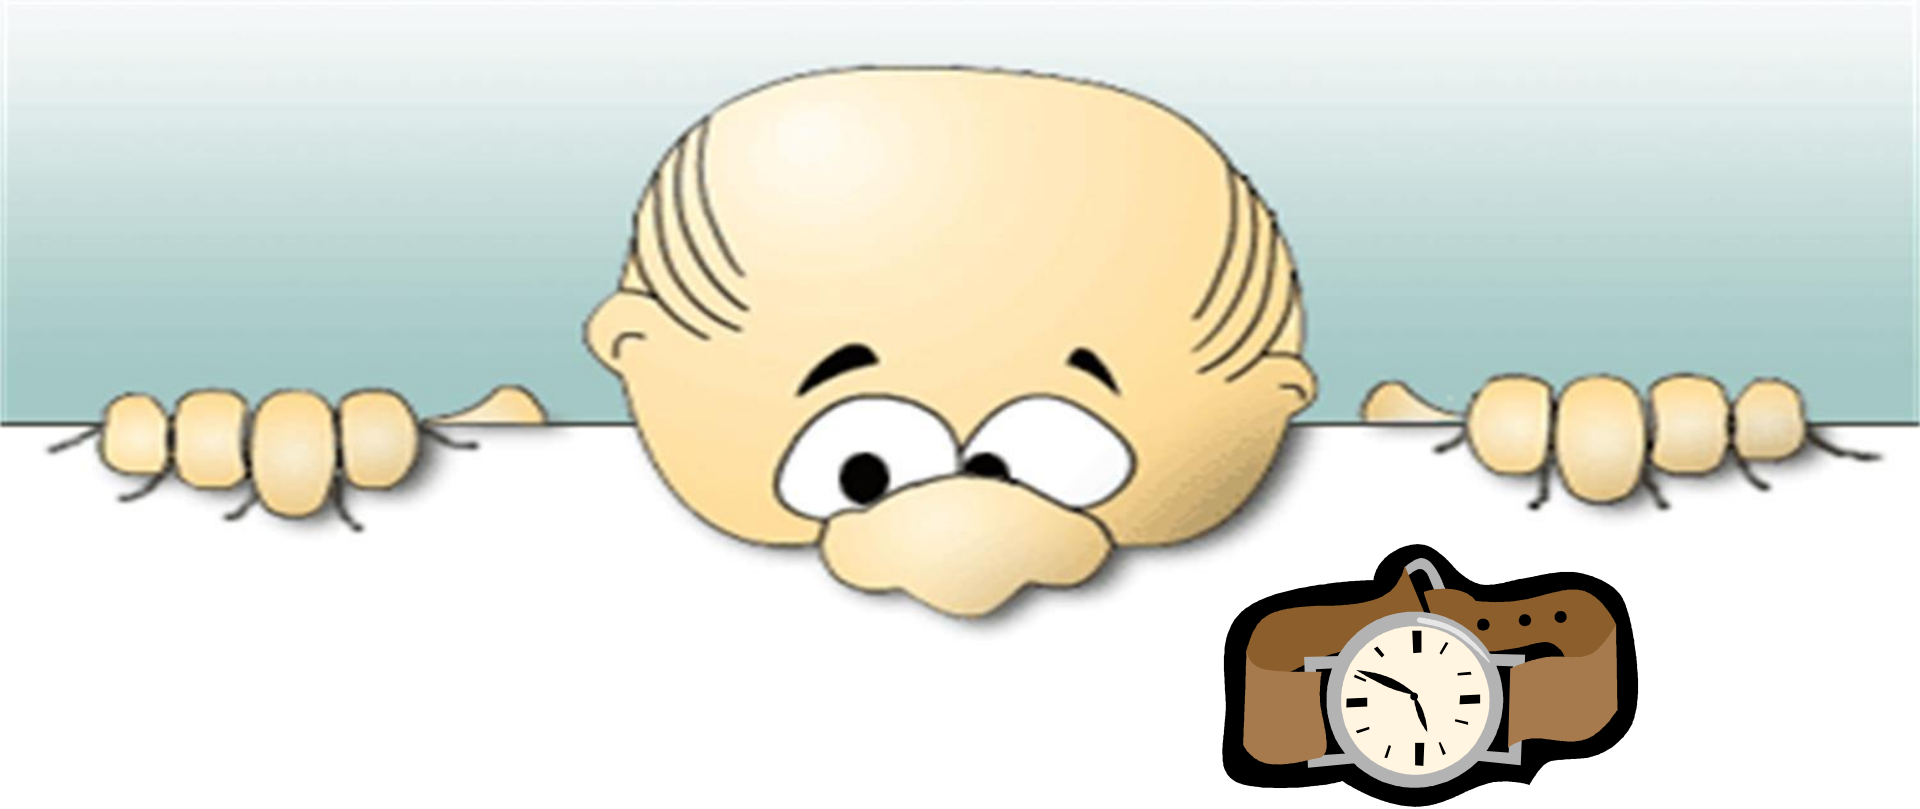

Does that bike belong to you?

Yes, it's mine

Does that boat belong to your parents?

No, it isn't theirs

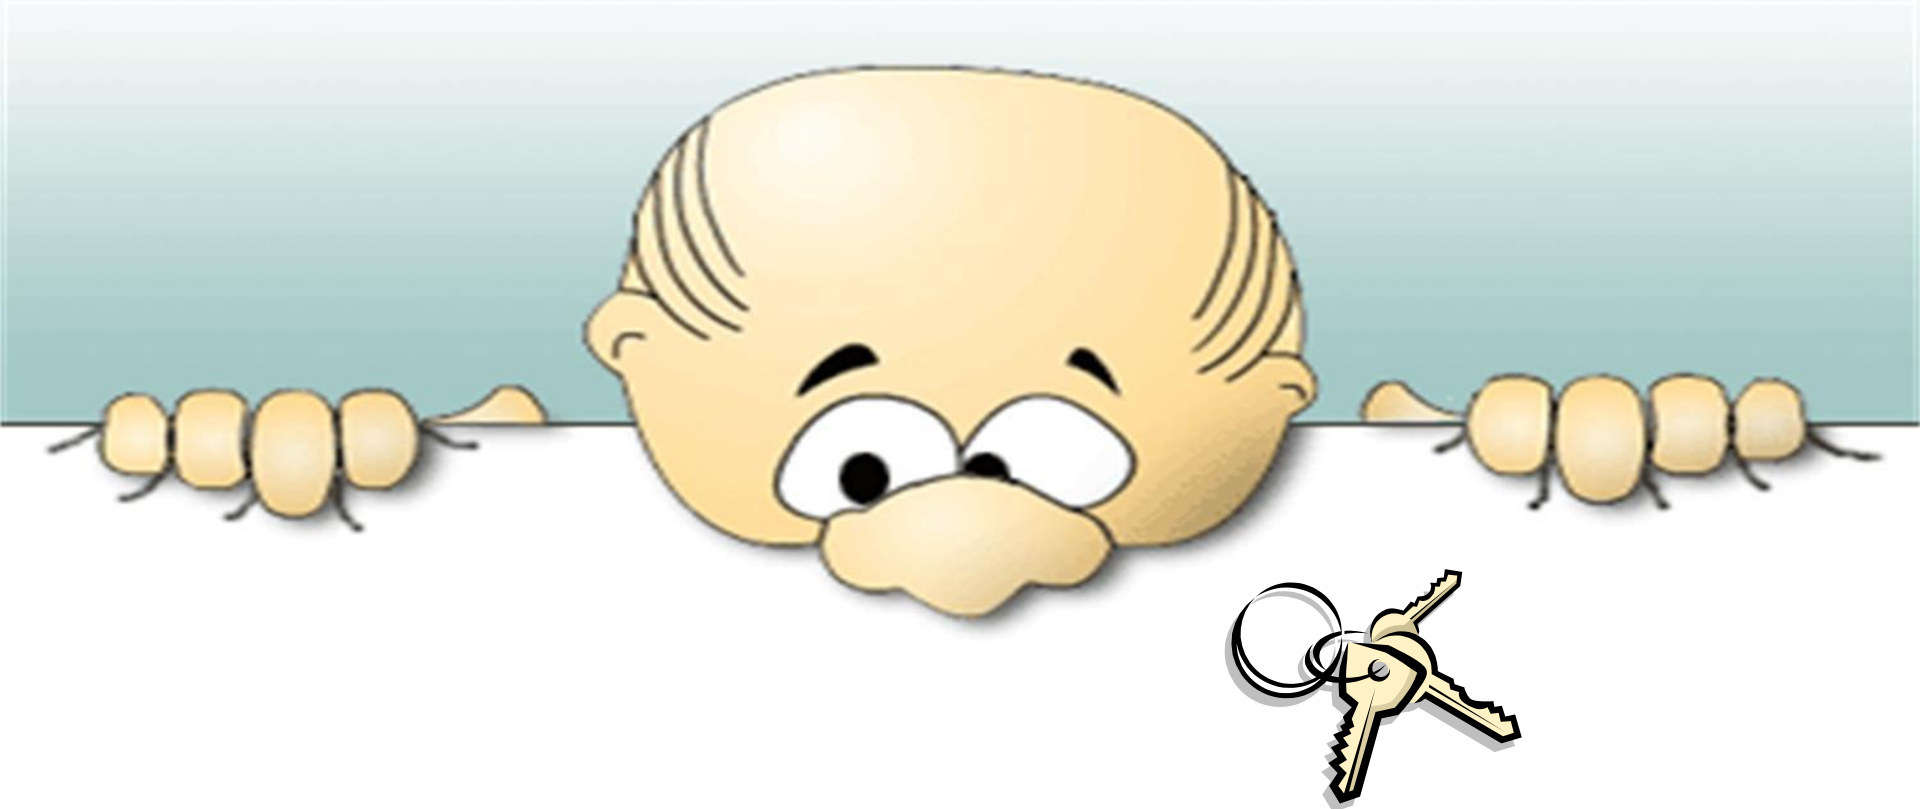

Is that John's watch?

No, it isn't his

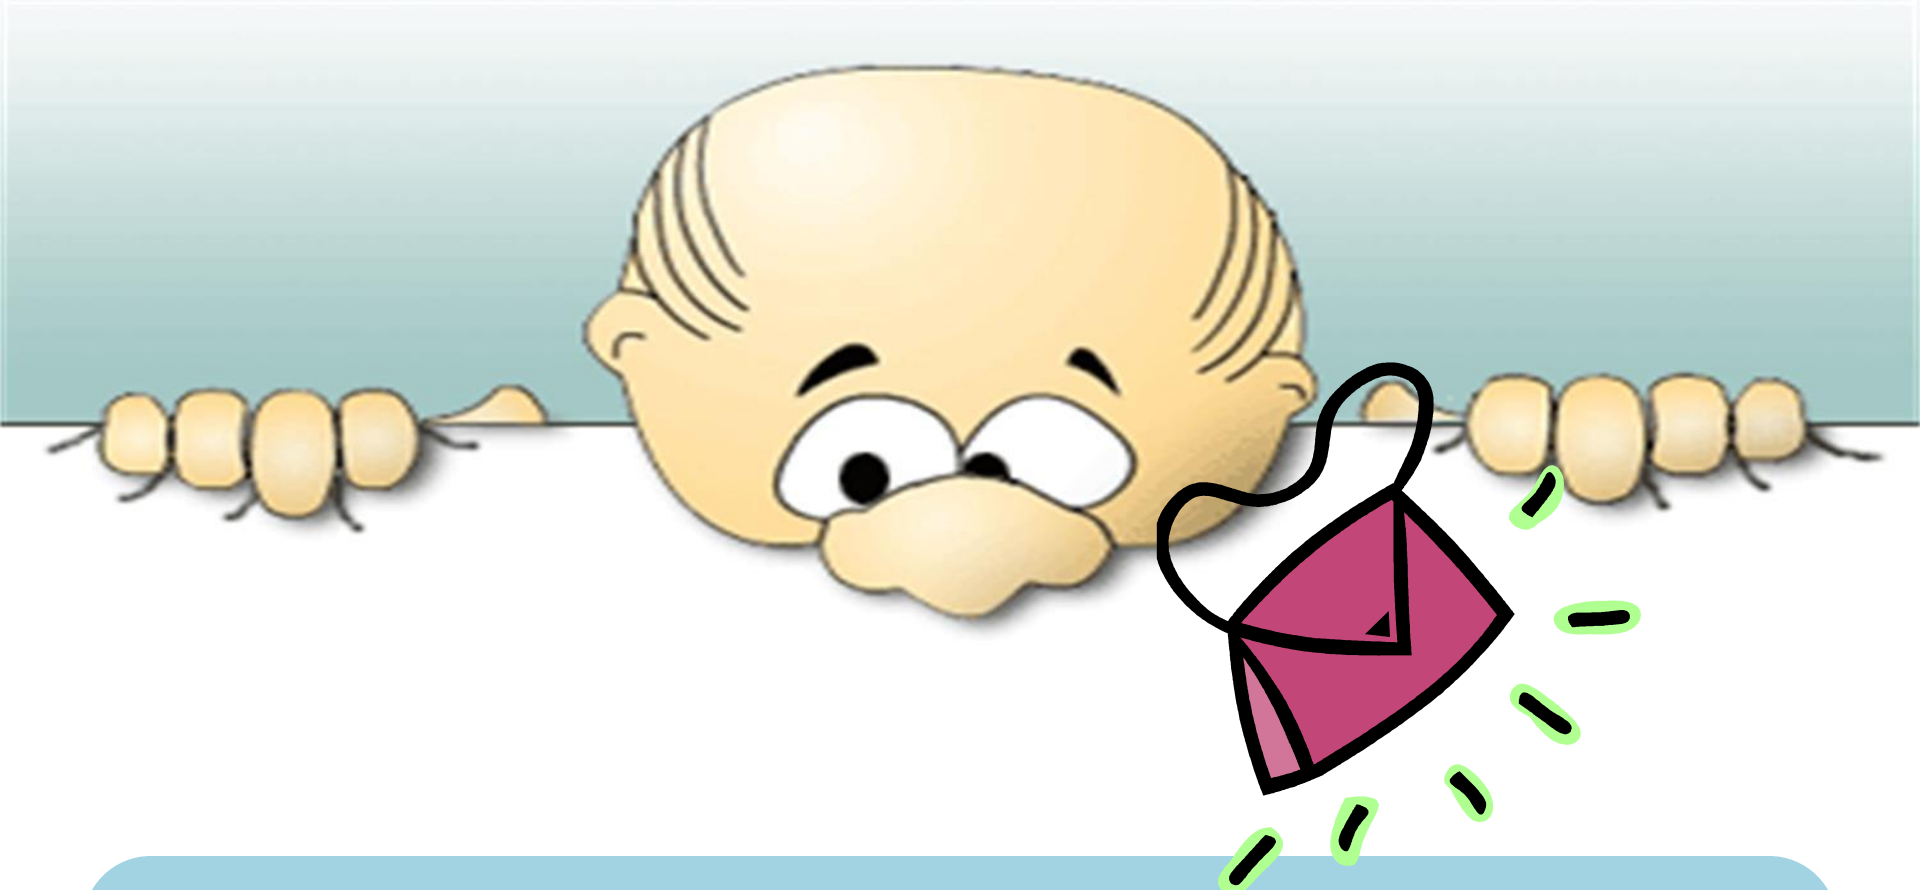

These photos belong to us.

They're ours

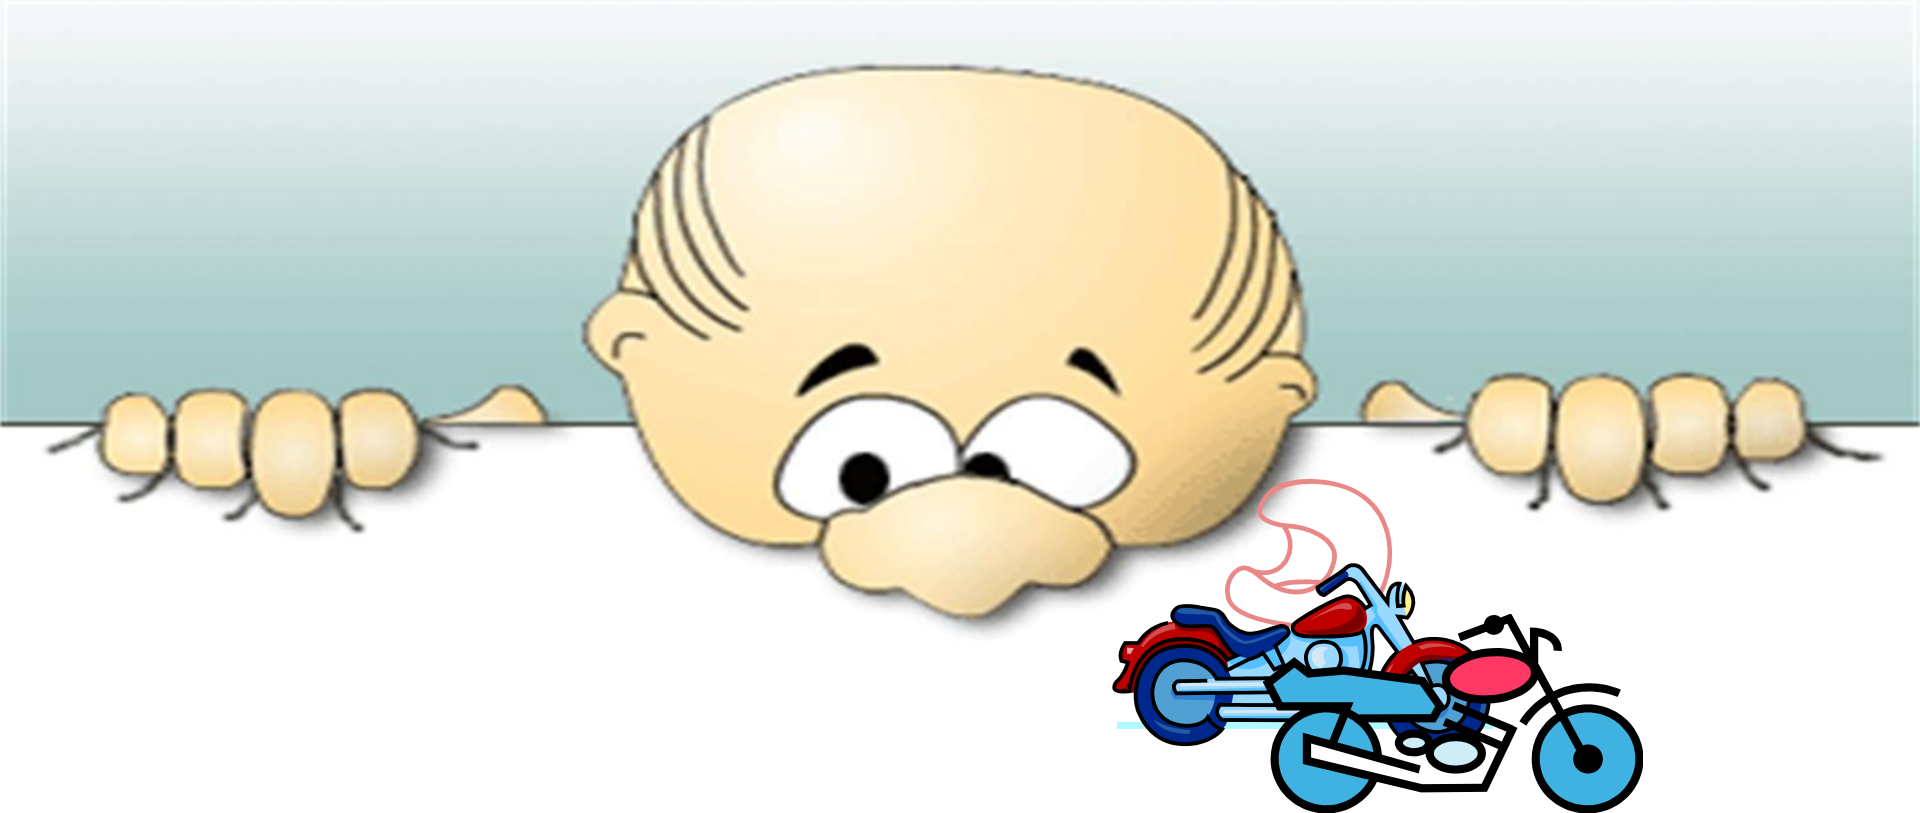

Are these keys yours?

No, they're not mine/ours

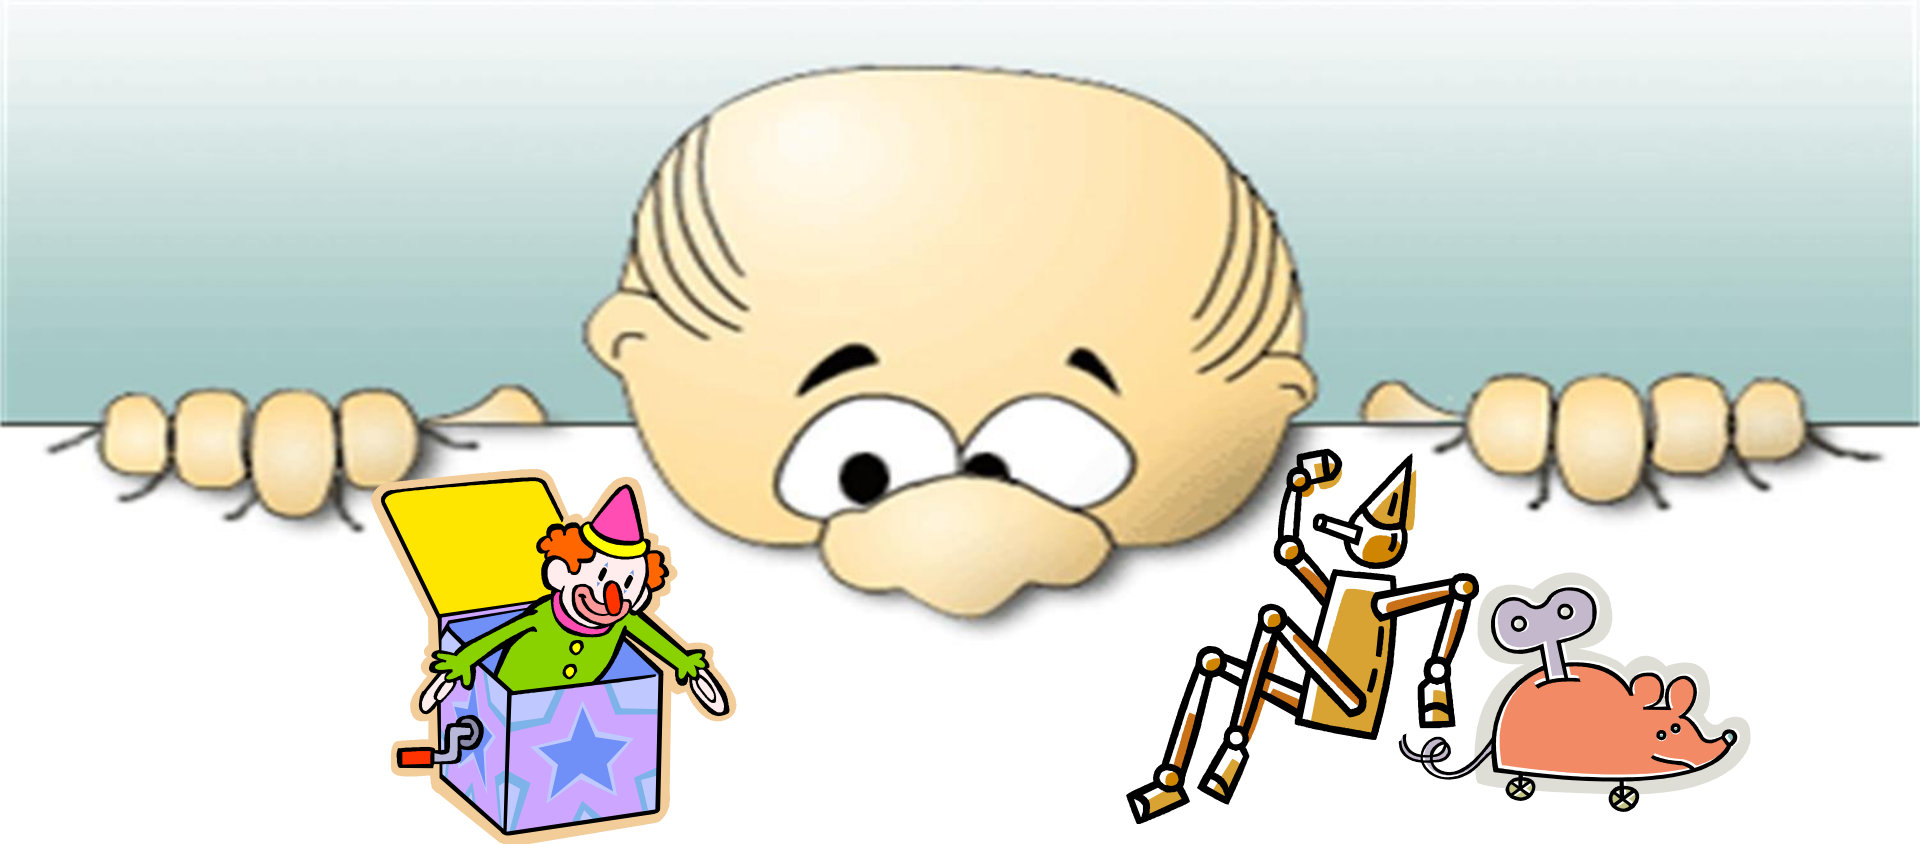

This bag belongs to Mary.

It's hers

Do those motorbikes belong to your friends?

No, they're not theirs

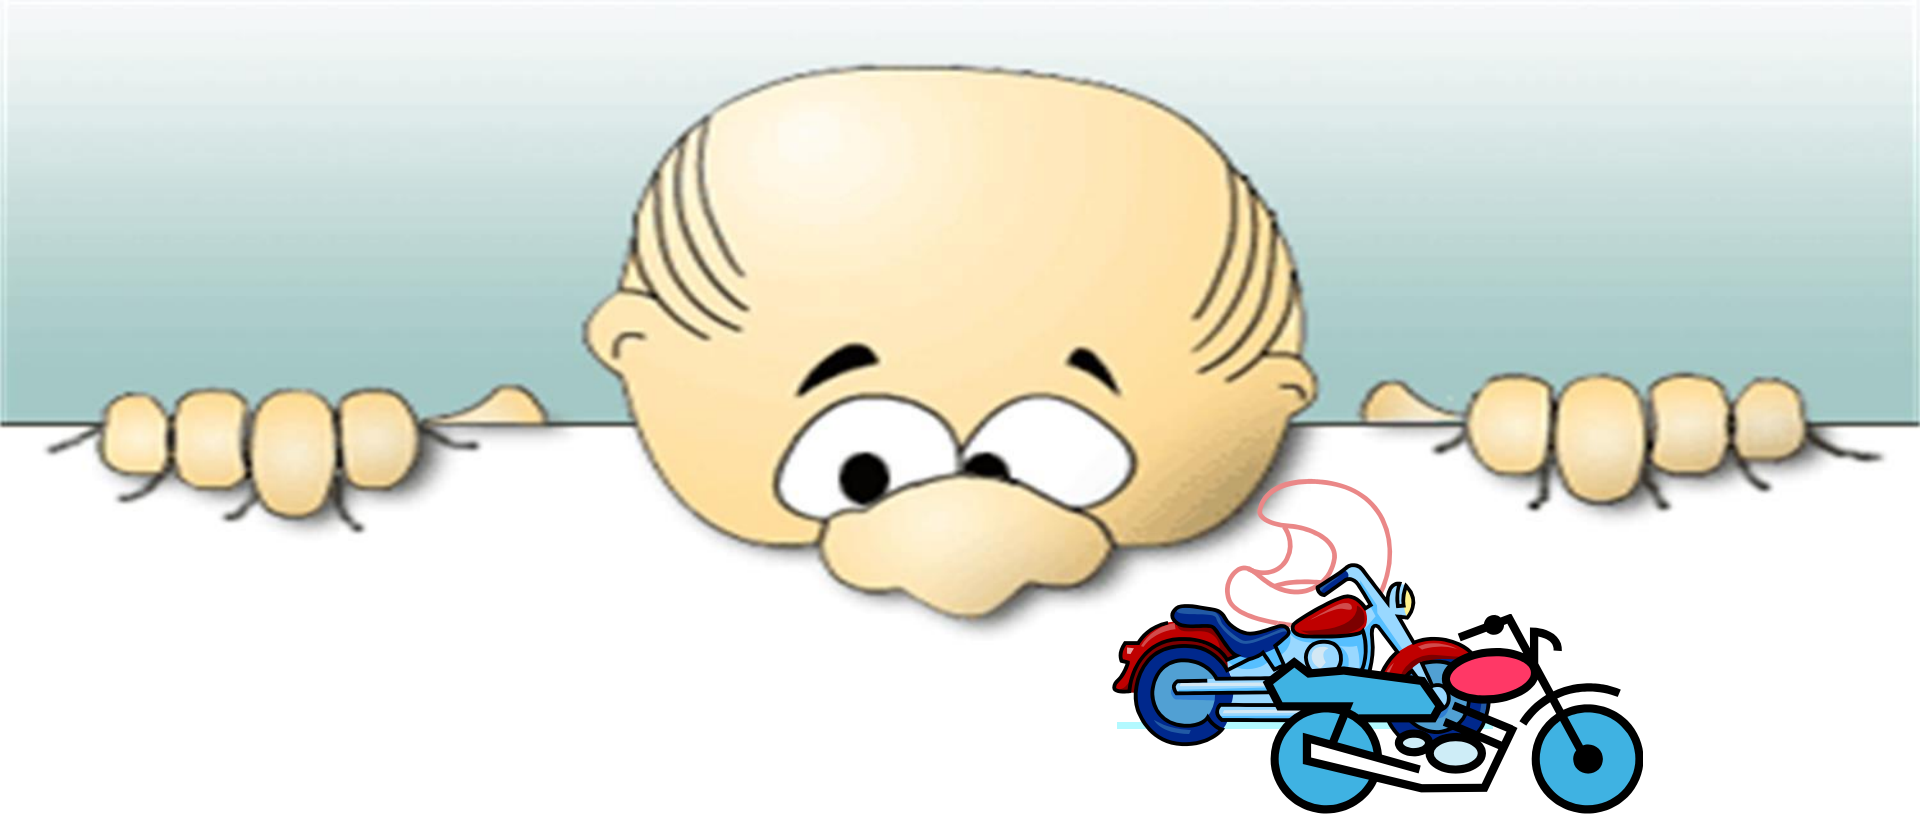

These are the children's toys.

They're theirs

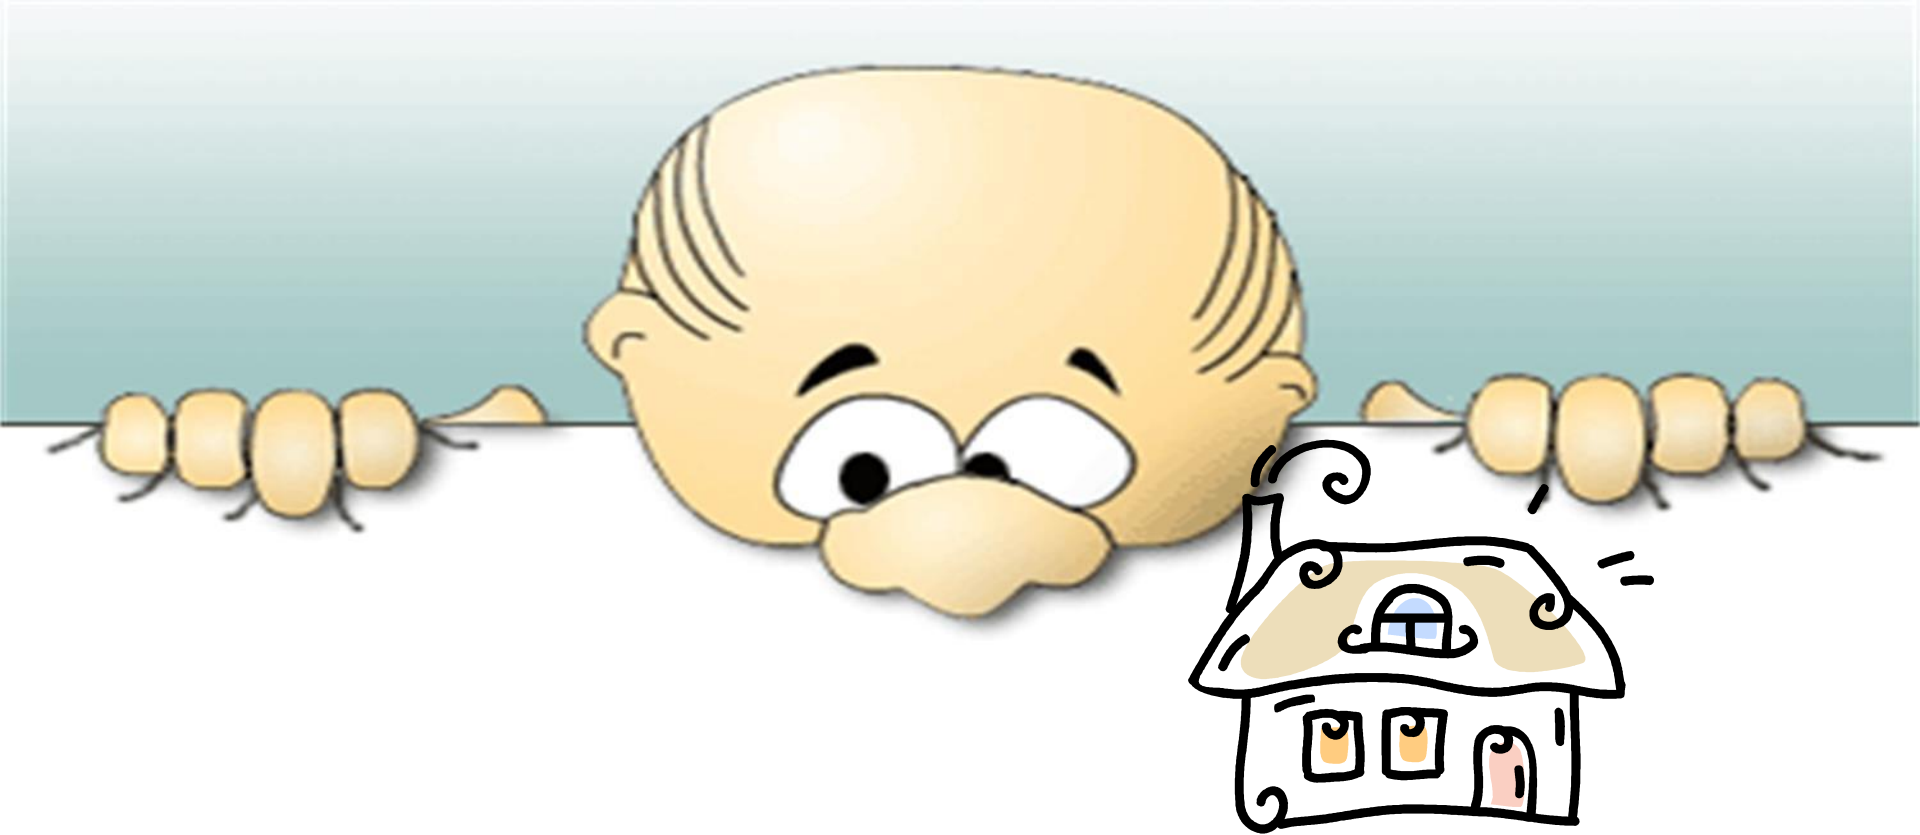

Is that Jack's scooter?

No, it's not his

Are they your motorbikes?

Yes, they're ours

That cottage belongs to my friends.

It's theirs

Are those our packed lunches?

Yes, they're ours

Is that present for me?

Yes, it's yours

Is that present for our grandfather?

Yes, it's his