

E N G L I S H

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

1. To forbid: Prohibit
2. Hurrying along - speedy: Rapid
3. To struggle against: Resist
4. The place where something begins: Source
5. The only one of its kind: Unique
6. A person who travels to live overseas: Emigrant
7. A person who looks on the bright side: Optimist
8. The opposite of internal: External
9. In a desert, a place where water is found: Oasis
10. Lasting – not temporary: Permanent

E N G L I S H

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

1. The highest point: Zenith
2. A piece of music for two players: Duet
3. Another word meaning holiday: Vacation
4. To persuade: Coax
5. The opposite of occupied: Vacant
6. A person who plans buildings: Architect
7. A word meaning to start again: Resume
8. A word meaning angry: Indignant
9. A word that refers to your home: Residence
10. A man whose wife has died: Widower

E N G L I S H

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

1. Very strange, ghostly, causing fear: Weird
2. A great success or victory: Triumph
3. A general name for chicken products: Poultry
4. To comprehend means to: Understand
5. To sink under the water: Submerge
6. Someone or something without a name: Anonymous
7. To delay and be slow of movement: Linger
8. To move backwards: Retreat
9. To be shy or frightened: Timid
10. To continue without ceasing: Incessant

E N G L I S H

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

1. A sofa and one or two armchairs: Suite
2. Four musicians playing as a group: Quartet
3. To give or pay towards something: Contribute
4. To be puzzled or unsure: Baffled
5. A life story not written by the subject: Biography
6. Absolutely required for the job or task: Necessary
7. The rules for writing the English language: Grammar
8. A sportsman/sportswoman who is not paid: Amateur
9. A woman whose husband has died: Widow
10. A doctor who performs operations: Surgeon

E N G L I S H

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

1. To follow after in order to overtake or capture: Pursue
2. Stiff item that is not easily bent: Rigid
3. Person who is an opponent or competitor: Rival
4. Small amount – not plentiful: Scarce
5. To restart – to begin again: Resume
6. Something which annoys or hurts: Nuisance
7. A person who writes for newspapers: Journalist
8. The force of a blow or collision: Impact
9. Pleasant and sweet-smelling: Fragrant
10. To notice or see: Observe