WHAT'S ON IN ST. PATRICK'S

Easter Hop

Our Easter Hop was a great success on Friday. The boys and girls danced their socks off, all in aid of Trocaire. Thank you to Mrs Crumley and her P7 class who helped organise the event. They had been working hard all week collecting donations and decorating the hall. This talented bunch led everyone in all the dances and made it lots of fun. We raised £2200 and want to thank everyone for their kindness and amazing generosity.

Choir at Feis Doire Colmcille

Our competition choir will take part in Feis Doire Colmcille on Tuesday 4th April. The event takes place in Saint Mary's College and parents, guardians and supporters are welcome to come along to hear our choir perform. The competition begins at 11:45am.

Sport Success

Last week the Gaelic, Soccer and Netball teams were playing in both friendly events and competitions. Our Netball team had a good win against St. Eithne's and have two more matches next week. The gaelic team played well in a friendly match at St. Brigid's Primary School.

Well done to our football team who were narrowly beaten in the Final of the Ryan McBride cup 4-3 on penalties by Oakgrove Primary School. They played with great teamwork and determination throughout the competition. Congratulations goes to Dylan Meenan who was awarded Player of the Tournament for his amazing goalkeeping to help get them to the final. Congratulations boys and thank you to Mr McCallion for organising the team.
